The RESTAURANT SCENE

Savvy travelers know that the best dining strategy in any city is to focus on the freshest, finest local ingredients. In Vancouver, that bounty comes from the Pacific Ocean and the "I'll do it my way" farmers who supply gifted chefs adept at handling both traditional and exotic ingredients. With a population that's more than 50 per cent Asian, the city also boasts some of the best ethnic restaurants in North America.

Here's my insider's list of great places to dine:

Cactus Club Coal Harbour

Overlooking Vancouver Harbour with Iron Chef Rob Feenie at the helm. Top-flight food, reasonable prices, and a wine list curated by one of the city's top sommeliers. Must try: Butternut Squash Ravioli with Prawns and the Feenie Burger.

Le Crocodile

Michel Jacob's elegant dining room and first-class kitchen seduces with classic French dishes, professional service and a mostly French wine list. Must try: The Chef's four-course menu at $85.

Bao Bei

Pan-Asian culinary traditions get a modern twist at this casual Chinese brasserie in the old part of Chinatown. Must try: Steamed Buns with Soy-Braised Duck.

MOTT 32

The family-friendly dim sum feast is the perfect way to sample a variety of Cantonese dishes in this sophisticated room. Wine service is stellar. Must try: Xiao Long Bao (hot and sour soup dumplings).

Tojo's

Sit at the 15-seat sushi bar in this soaring space and order the Omasake (chef's choice). The endlessly creative Hidekazu Tojo will send out a parade of delectable courses. Must try: Tojo Roll and Baked Sablefish.

Coast

This high-energy restaurant offers a true West Coast dining experience whether you're seated at the circular seafood bar or upstairs overlooking the action. The extensive wine list pleases all. Must try: Miso-Maple-Marinated Sablefish.

Blue Water Café

Chef Frank Pabst knows and loves fish and serves only the most sustainable wild coastal species including the "unsung heroes" of the deep. Service is gracious. Must try: Seafood Tasting for Two and the Arctic Char.

Miku

Waterfront Aburi-style nigiri sushi-lightly flamed-seared and infused with savoury French-inspired sauces—is a specialty. So is Oshi, an Osaka-style pressed sushi. The extensive saké list is complemented by well-chosen, food-friendly wines. Must try: Red Wave Roll.

Bauhaus

Film producer Uwe Boll's fine dining German restaurant attracts Vancouver's most discriminating diners. You'll find a European menu with local influences and a well-conceived riesling wine list. Must try: Cornish Game Hen.

Maenam

Angus An does for Thai what Vij does for Indian. His cooking balances simplicity and complexity on the plate. Must try: the otherworldly 8-Spice Crispy Ling Cod in Caramelized Tamarind and Palm Sugar Sauce.

Vij's

Vikram Vij re-interprets Indian cuisine for the contemporary palate without losing its spice-route roots. Your best bet for a table with minimal wait at his dinner-only, no-reservations restaurant is early or late. Must try: Lamb Popsicles in Fenugreek Curry.

Cioppino's

Pino Posterero's French-inspired Mediterranean cooking and his talent for wine pairing are a perfect marriage. Put yourself in the chef's competent hands and you'll have a brilliant meal enhanced by flawless service. Must try: Veal Ossobuco.

L'Abbatoir

Gastown's Blood Alley is home to Chef Lee Cooper's intriguing dinner menu. Brunch is superb, too, and the reserve wine list impresses. Must try: Roast Duck with Orange and Lavender Honey.

Hawksworth

The technical prowess of European-trained David Hawksworth is the driving force behind the bold, contemporary food and award-winning wine program. Must try: Pacific Halibut with Chaga (wild mushroom) Broth, Ponzu and Yuzu Accents.

The Next World of OKANAGAN WINE

If you are visiting British Columbia this summer and local wines are on your tasting list, we have a GEM of a top ten list for you. BC has experienced a quantum leap in wine quality over the last decade, which makes picking only ten wines considered at, or near the top of the heap, an impossible task, but pick them we did. Cutting a swath of diversity across the Okanagan and Similkameen, we came up with an impressive list that should please most palates; syrah, pinot noir, chardonnay, riesling and red blends reflect the extreme cool-climate that blankets the region for eight months of the year. A new generation of growers and winemakers are dialling in their terroir, their viticulture and their winemaking.

We have made the break from aping the world's most sought-after wine styles to comfortably pursuing our own path — a path alive with electric acidity and freshness and sense of purity seldom encountered in warmer climes. This is the new British Columbia, the Next World of wine.

SOUTH Okanagan

CheckMate Artisanal Winery 2014 Attack Chardonnay

Barn Vineyard Two sites, two foudres, two clones and one electric, flinty, stony tropical Okanagan chardonnay.

SIMILKAMEEN Valley

Similkameen pure, floral, saline, savoury, black raspberry mineral sandblasted red fruits.

SOUTH OKANAGAN

Le Vieux Pin Equinoxe 2014 Syrah

Structural, savoury, powerful, syrah dusted in pepper, bathed in black cherries, yet all with a sense of grace.

OSOYOOS Lakebench

Osoyoos Larose 2014 Bordeaux Blend

A modern French interpretation of the classic Bordeaux blend yields the Next World Okanagan red blend

EAST KELOWNA

Martin's Lane Simes Vineyard 2014 Pinot Noir

Bright pure pinot fruit with mineral, sapid, juicy red fruit made without any makeup.

WEST KELOWNA

Quails' Gate 2016 Pinot Noir Stewart Family Reserve

Finesse and elegance mark this fragrant, dark raspberryflavoured pinot wrapped in tobacco & smoke.

OKANAGAN FALLS

Meyer Family Vineyards 2016 Pinot Noir Micro Cuvée McLean Creek Vineyards

The Micro-Cuvée is the year's best pinot; lots winemaker Chris Carson refers to it as his "most harmonious blend."

OKANAGAN

Synchromesh 2016 Riesling Storm Haven Vineyard

The Mosel meets the Okanagan with delicious, delicate, aromatic, perfumed refined riesling.

SOUTH OKANAGAN

Mission Hill Family Estate 2013 Oculus

Sagebrush and cedar come together in this south Okanagan ode to Bordeaux and beyond.

EAST KELOWNA

Tantalus Vineyards Old Vines 2014 Riesling

Old vines, young people and a riesling that can electrify most menus choices.

Mark Taylor SELECT DINING

It's not hard to find great food, wine, service and ambience in Vancouver restaurants, but putting them all together under one roof may require a longer search. You walk into an amazing room, but the staff is less than attentive. Or the food disappoints, with no effort put into the beverage menu at all. You can take the guesswork out of the equation with my list of select dining restaurants. These are real reviews. I have dined at all of these establishments (often many times) and a great many more that didn't make the list. I am looking for culinary creations that are pure, original and delicious, paired with a balanced, captivating wine and beverage list. You can't have one without the other. The experience has to go beyond just the food and wine; without service and the right room it just doesn't work. Try one of these restaurants, and if you have a positive experience you should likely try them all. They hit the mark, in every way.

FAUBOURG BOULANGERIE-PÂTISSERIE

To French history buffs, the name Faubourg may evoke layers of meaning—ancient villages; the reign of Louis XVI; the bread bakers who fed a revolution—but Vancouver's three Faubourg boulangeries-pâtisseries are note-perfect slices of today's Paris, not the Paris of postcards. The bright, urban cafes, each with unique twists of modern Parisian design, welcome you in with glass counters laden with buttery croissants, irresistible pastries, quiches and sandwiches, and crisp French breads, all crafted fresh on site, right down to the house-made ice cream. For the full French experience, try the afternoon salon tea at the Kerrisdale location:

an expert "tea sommelier" guides you through a range of exclusive Mariage Frères blends, then pairs your choice with perfect bites in savoury and sweet.

古典法式咖啡館在Faubourg麵包糕點屋完美重現。新鮮糕點搭配限量法式花茶,讓人享受生活的浪漫下午茶。

KOBE JAPANESE STEAK & SEAFOOD HOUSE

Celebrating a remarkable 50 years in business, Kobe Steak House looks forward to the next 50 as well, serving the freshest, finest food. Many pretenders have come and gone, but the first, original, and authentic Japanese teppanyaki house, located in the heart of downtown Vancouver, is still giving Vancouverites the time of their lives. It is part performance art, and all culinary delight. Cuts of meat are knived into small squares, each then seasoned, so that every morsel has amazing flavour. Run with love by the same family since 1969, Kobe Steak House is a jubilant celebration: gregarious chefs with big skills and bigger personalities chop, sear, and entertain right at table, bringing the party while happy diners cheer at the bursts of flame, toast with signature cocktails, and dig into choice seafoods and meats, including authentic Wagyu beef from Japan's Miyazaki prefecture. It is all made even more enchanting through the art of teppanyaki, the ancient searing technique. For 50 years and counting, Kobe has been very different in the best way—a spirit of fun for locals and visitors who like to step far out of the ordinary.

ARC RESTAURANT & BAR

The best things in Vancouver—amazing views, great local food, and relaxed evenings with friends—all come together at ARC, the cozy and stylish lounge and restaurant at Fairmont Waterfront. There is a fabulous patio, too. This buzzy spot features warm live music, a wraparound patio, delicious plates and garden-toglass cocktails, and, capping it off, a sweep of windows offering gorgeous peeks of the harbour.

A commitment to seasonal, traceable, and hyperlocal is evident under the tasty care of chef Anthony Marzo, with stints at Wikininnish, in the UK at Wild Honey, Club Gascon and Rhodes 24, and at Cin Cin all under his belt. Chef Marzo's technical approach is guided by his passion for ingredients, and it shows in both the new menus of each season and in the perennial ARC board—a massive, crowd-pleasing plank featuring a trio of Ocean Wise seafoods or local meats complemented with house-made sauces and fresh vegetables (many grown right in ARC's own rooftop garden).

BAUHAUS RESTAURANT

When German film director Dr. Uwe Boll opened Bauhaus restaurant in Vancouver's Gastown, there may have been a raised eyebrow or two. He was determined to bring Michelin-star quality German food to a new level. It is certainly mission accomplished. Executive Chefs Tim Schulte and David Mueller bring creativity and full-on flavours to the table, with adept, detail-oriented service every step of the way. The incredible tasting menus change every 6 to 8 weeks and truly showcase the creativity of the chefs.

Bauhaus has had the honour of being acknowledged internationally: in 2017 it was listed as a restaurant to watch by The World's 50 Best Restaurants' Diner's Discovery Series. This list is considered the 'next generation of dining destinations.' This past year Bauhaus was listed as one of the best German bars and restaurants around the world by CNN, and as part of the new global face of German cuisine by Wine Enthusiast. Recently announced: an expansion to Toronto in spring 2019, with a location opening in China at Ocean Flower Island to follow. International quality, international acclaim. Bauhaus.

Bauhaus餐厅的目标为提升与创新德国美食,每六到八星期推出新料理。Bauhaus近年在各大国际美食赏中得到肯定、在2017年被CNN评为世界顶级的德国酒吧餐厅。

PIDGIN

Pidgin truly embraces the cosmopolitan nature of Vancouver. Diversity of culture means diversity of foods, and that is what Pidgin is all about. French technique meets a wide variety of culinary culture influences, most obviously pan-Asian, resulting in an imaginative, unique and wholly delicious dining experience.

Executive chef Wesley Young and general manager Alain Canuel allow the palate and the experience to soar. Begin perhaps with udon vongole, manila clams, guanciale, shiso, lemon zest and furikake; or try the always amazing daily ceviche. Main plates include such delights as roasted sweetbread with peas à la Française and prosciutto. Or try the pork belly rice bowl with Asian pear kimchi, bamboo, and quail egg. The only thing predictable about this menu is that it is downright delicious. A thoughtful wine list and wide range of sake complete the picture.

Pidgin将温哥华的大都会性质融入到创意美食料理中。用多元的文化、食材与法式料理技术创造出独一无二的餐饮体验。

CITY SIDE WINERY

Just outside downtown Vancouver, City Side Winery beckons. This unique, full-production winery houses a tasting room, wine lounge, wine store and Heritage Kitchen. It is truly an urban oasis, welcoming wine lovers and experts to the latest in the West Coast's growing wine culture. This new-concept winery, with its captivating ambiance, is a popular venue for hosting an array of family and corporate events.

Founded by a family of winemakers with strong roots in culture and history, City Side Winery is the place to go to experience wine culture and genuine hospitality, splendid in its urban setting, more like home, in a non-commercial design. Wine education and appreciation are the focus. Wines from grapes sourced here in British Columbia, delicious dishes from the Heritage Kitchen, to match. This is a place you will want to return to.

City Side Winery是创新概念的全方位葡萄酒厂,店内包含品酒室、酒吧、销售区与餐厅。自产的葡萄酒搭配店内的美食与舒适气氛,City Side Winery是温哥华的市内桃源。

TUC CRAFT KITCHEN

The idea began around their kitchen table. The vision, of sharing great food with friends and family, was realized by opening Tuc Craft Kitchen. That was five years ago and counting. This is a delightful, welcoming restaurant, some rustic elements, many elegant elements, that make it a great destination for a convivial, heart-warming dining experience.

It is an expression of sincere generosity, as if you were invited into someone's home for dinner. But here, all the details are seen to, and the utmost care and expertise is given, which means a memorable evening every time. Local suppliers are called far in advance of harvests, so Tuc knows what to prepare for and creates great dishes from the very freshest and finest of local ingredients. The signature component of every dish has always been allowed to shine. And the wine list is composed with the idea that the right bottle of wine elevates every meal. Craft brews on tap, hand-squeezed fruit juices, you simply cannot beat the elegant yet simple approach at Tuc Craft Kitchen.

Tuc Craft Kitchen的理念是与朋友和家人分享美食,让每位客人感受欢乐与暖心的时光。愉快的环境、新鲜的食材与多样化的饮品。

LA TERRAZZA

It was a full twenty years ago when Gennaro Iorio, Giulio Miceli and Iqbal Grewal opened the high-ceilinged, well-spaced and elegant Italian restaurant La Terrazza. It has been evolution upon evolution since then, keeping things lively, fresh, and vital. An extensive renovation gave the place a more Venetian feel, lovely chandeliers, wooden beams, a fantastic pure walnut bar in the lounge, and all with a keen sense of making it all deeply authentic Italian.

Fresh burrata from Puglia twice a week, that almost never lasts an evening's service; Venetian-style carpaccio; carbonara but with a flourish of fresh lobster. The local provenance means this is Italian with a West Coast flourish, not fusion food, just deeply delicious, with plenty of fresh ingredients. The braciolette di vitello, in limited nightly quantities, is to die for. Giulio's feature pasta is taglierini all' olio with black tiger prawns, capers and garlic and toasted prosciutto with bread crumbs. And the strozzapreti Bolognese cannot be missed. Authentic, gorgeous, memorable to the last sip of espresso, with an unrivalled wine list to make it all a complete experience. This is a special place.

「La Terrazza」是道地、华丽、令人难忘的意大利 美食餐厅。每星期从南意普利亚购入的新鲜布拉 塔乳酪令人垂延三尺。

PROVENCE MARINASIDE

Fresh, chic and romantic, Provence Marinaside is part refined Marseilles, part relaxed Vancouver—and all warmth and welcome. Founders and chefs Jean-Francis and Alessandra Quaglia have built a slice of Southern France along Yaletown's bustling waterfront, offering Mediterranean-inspired French cuisine with a focus on seasonal and local product. Along with signature crab and lobster dishes, you'll find omelettes and benedicts, tartines and brioche, West Coaststyle bouillabaisse, and double-tiered platters bursting with consummately prepared seafood.

On sunny days, the glass patio walls open up, bringing the outside in and creating an ideal spot to watch boats and cyclists and locals with their tiny dogs go by. You'll definitely want to get yourself something to sip, too: with 48 vintages on tap from the dramatic "wine wall" plus 90+ bottles to try, Provence Marinaside has a fabulous wine-by-the-glass program like nowhere else in the city.

清新、雅致、浪漫。Provence Marinaside融合了精致马赛风格与温哥华轻松风格。著名的地中海法式螃蟹与龙虾料理搭配葡萄酒绝不容错过。

NUBA

From the moment Victor Bouzide started serving his grandmother's Lebanese recipes from a cozy nook on Hastings Street, Nuba became a Vancouver mainstay. Today, with the visionary partnership of Ernesto Gomez, the restaurant's unique, beautiful spaces are serving up delicious Mediterranean comfort food and inventive cocktails across the city.

The timeless dishes that form the foundation of Nuba's menu are almost magically suited to the modern, multi-influenced West Coast, making it a favourite for group hangouts or catering. With a focus on hormone-free, local, and fresh (you won't find a can opener in any of their restaurants), there is something to please everyone: halal or gluten-free, picky eater or adventurer, vegan or carnivore. Share some mezzes, try a classic falafel or crispy cauliflower, or let the kitchen surprise you—the creative fresh sheets change daily at each location.

Nuba餐廳是由Victor Bouzide開創的黎巴嫩與地中海料理餐廳。它們採用本地的食材製作出風情萬種的料理。Nuba獲得許多當地人的喜愛。

FAYUCA

Fayuca is inspired by the free flow of flavours and ideas across borders, up and down the Pacific Coastline, from the state of Baja California in Mexico to the province of British Columbia in Canada. This delightful, tasty place meticulously sources products from the best farms, fisheries, and suppliers. Farmed products are organic or chemical free, whenever possible. All seafood is sustainable and wild caught.

Each dish is memorable, from the grilled cactus with Halloumi cheese, avocado and charred salsa verde, or the albacore tuna ceviche with avocado, green aguachile, through to such main courses as lamb belly barbacoa that's served with house-made tortillas, and the caguamanta, a Pacific Northwest Mexican seafood stew with Humboldt squid, gaujillo, and tomato.

Fayuca's innovative, handcrafted cocktail menu pays tribute to Mexico's esoteric mysticism, and its top shelf has the largest selection of mezcal in the city. Fayuca pours beer from the best local breweries, and every wine on the menu is natural and free of sulfites. This is as much a cultural as a culinary adventure, sure to bring you back for more.

Fayuca的美食灵感来自于加拿大至墨西哥的太平 洋海岸线。利用永久发展野生海产与健康蔬菜制 作出一道道既难忘又充满冒险的美食料理。

SMALL VICTORY BAKERY

It says "bread and coffee", but Small Victory is so much more. This delightful, expansive space offers unique breakfast items, a terrific array of lunch sandwiches, and phenomenal desserts and specialty cakes, all made in-house along with the amazing bread and terrific coffee. The place is always buzzing, both with customers and behind the counter, and especially at the ovens. The menu even specifies the daily fresh-baked bread is available after 11 a.m. onwards.

And what bread it is; country loaf, porridge bread, seeded whole wheat, and of course the timeless baguette. For a break in your fast, scones with clotted cream and fresh jam, or rolled oats should do the trick. The lunch sandwiches include such delights as roasted pepper and chicken, a great turkey BLT, or you can choose from some unique salads. You will be tempted as you stroll by the front door. By all means give in, and go inside to try something. It is all excellent, and you will be glad you did.

Small Victory不只是面包与咖啡,还有独特的早餐、中餐、三明治、点心与蛋糕。每日早上十一点会出炉新鲜面包。

ROSEWOOD HOTEL GEORGIA

The grand opening in 1927 of the Hotel Georgia was unlike any other event in Vancouver. Celebrities, royalty, businesspeople, all stayed at the hotel through the roaring twenties and well on into the 21st century. Nat King Cole, Bing Crosby, Elvis Presley, Katherine Hepburn, all graced the property. An extensive renovation, a re-imagining, really, resulted in the Rosewood Hotel Georgia opening its doors in 2011 and welcoming guests into a world of timeless elegance and grandeur.

Hawksworth restaurant, BelCafe, Reflections: The Garden Terrace, Prohibition cocktail bar, 1927 Lobby Lounge and Sense, A Rosewood Spa®, are all part of the picture. Les Clefs d'Or concierge, extraordinary service, and a location central to all of downtown Vancouver, make this the ideal resting place, whether you are travelling for business or enjoying some quality down time. This grand hotel is larger than life, a timeless classic ready to meet your every expectation.

CULMINA

2007 marked the year wine industry icon Don Triggs began his career culmination: the aptly named, passionately conceived and beautifully executed Culmina Family Estate Winery. His wife and co-proprietor Elaine, daughter Sara, and talented vineyard and winemaking team all make Culmina a very special place to visit. The Tasting Room, with its great wines on offer and splendid views of the vineyard benches above and the expanse of the Okanagan Valley below, is open as of Friday, April 27th this year until the fall. A "Reserve Tasting" or even a specially curated VIP Vineyard & Winery Tour are the finest ways to gain an appreciation for Culmina.

The wine varieties have been carefully selected to ideally match the soils and climate, making every bottle something special. Crisp, nuanced riesling, the Okanagan's first grüner veltliner, elegant chardonnay, savoury rosé, cabernet sauvignon, cabernet franc, malbec and merlot comprise the collection, with the Hypothesis red blend standing as the icon wine. No detail is overlooked, no measure too small. Culmina makes fantastic wine and is a wonderful winery to experience.

2007年年,葡萄酒界的指标人物Don Triggs与妻子子女儿儿在欧肯纳根湖区建立了自己的酒庄Culmina。 他们也是首位在欧肯纳根湖区制作出绿维特利纳白酒的酒庄。酒庄开放于春季至秋季。

Looking for Luxury Fashion & Accessories

When it comes to fashion, the word "luxury" is strewn around like it's going out of style. But, what is true luxury, and where can we find it? In a city like Vancouver—known for its mountain landscape, ocean views, and outdoorsy lifestyle—you might think truly luxurious shopping is rare, but you'd be mistaken.

Luxury isn't a price tag on a piece of clothing, it's an experience.

It's comfort and extravagance, service and quality, bespoke and unique. Vancouver has an abundance of luxury shopping for a relatively small "big city". You just need to know where to look.

With the opening of Nordstrom three years ago, Vancouver upped its game globally in the luxury shopping stakes—it takes customer service and brand variety to the next level. This is your go-to for that little black dress or special outfit, handpicked by your complementary personal shopper, of course. The newly expanded Vancouver staple Holt Renfrew, as well as Leone and Brunello Cucinelli are also extraordinary fare when searching for that showstopping outfit.

Everyday style more your aesthetic? This is where Vancouver thrives. Gastown's cobbles house many options for the sartorially inclined—One of a Few, Neighbour, and Roden Gray are all standouts—as well as Mount Pleasant, too, where Motherland for men and Woo To See You for women both have modern and clean choices that you can't go wrong with. The laidback chic Vancouver has become known for is also apparent in the downtown core, with boutiques like 017, Couturist and Blubird upping the stakes when it comes to choice and service.

If you're looking for something to add that certain je ne sais quoi to an outfit, there's plenty of choice when it comes to unique accessories, too. Cavalier Gastown may be known for its custom engagement and wedding rings, but it has a beautiful jewellery and watch collection, too. Time & Gold and Van Cleef & Arpels can satisfy your highend, big-name cravings, and The Cross can give you your fix of locally made, curated jewellery pieces.

Vancouver is home to Dior's largest accessories boutique in Canada located in Holt Renfrew-so a visit to their newly expanded concession, as well as to Saint Laurent's beautiful Thurlow Street boutique, is sure to result in a beautiful new bag. If shoes are more your thing, there are plenty of options here, too. Xixo Leather Artistry excels with Cuadra handmade leather shoes, Rowan Sky brings a thoughtfully curated collection of Canadian and European footwear, and Livestock—with locations in Gastown and Chinatown—is the place to go to satisfy your sneaker addiction.

To polish off your outfit, you can't go wrong with an elegant jacket. Stefano Ricci is indisputably the premiere choice in the city for men's jackets. Their 2,600 square ft. space brings their first standalone Canadian boutique to Vancouver, and with it their unique brand of Italian opulence and quality. If you're looking for something a lot more wallet-friendly however, Sweden's COS is always reliable for a good, clean, versatile design. Moncler's boutique in the home of Vancouver luxury shopping district downtown-with neighbours including Saint Laurent, Prada, and De Beers, to name only a few—on Thurlow and Alberni is your go to for a chic European down jacket to keep you warm in cooler months.

And, if on top of all of that you're still looking for a truly unique experience, you won't need to look beyond Yaletown's Leisure Center. It's an entity unto itself and is a simply beautiful space. It's where high-end retail, art, culture, and beauty collide, and is not to be missed on a visit to the city.

COUTURIST

The style curators at Couturist live by the "three Cs": as they search the globe for fresh women's fashion to bring home to Vancouver, each item they select must be contemporary, must be chic, and must be comfortable. The independent boutique stands out in a neighbourhood better known for mega-brand chains—it first grew a following as a series of in-demand pop-up shops, and finally opened a permanent location on Robson Street in early 2016. There is the Couturist label, which reveals its influences from Korea, Japan and China. The diversity on the racks in the clean, pared-down space ensures a find for everyone; look for labels that combine international style and confidence with ethics and surprising value, like laid-back Australian brand Fifth Label, Korean-Italian eyewear from Front, denim from L.A.'s Just Black Denim and EVIDNT. There is cool, up-cycled bullet-casing jewellery from Half United, the U.S. initiative that donates meals to hungry children for every item sold. At Couturist, the fully curated pieces are one of a kind, limited quantity, and unique.

Couturist是位于Robson街的独特女性精品服饰店。流行、时髦与舒适是这里的宗旨。从世界八方精心挑选的流行单品与品牌等您来发掘。

STEFANO RICCI

It was a notable occasion when iconic Italian men's fashion brand Stefano Ricci opened its Vancouver boutique in early 2017. This is only the fourth boutique in North America, after Beverly Hills, New York and Las Vegas. The timing could not be better. The accomplished staff are specialists in made-to-measure creations, all inhouse, a key component in the Ricci universe. The boutique is language-friendly, as well; English, Mandarin, Cantonese, Spanish, Italian, Russian, Korean, Taiwanese, Japanese, German are all spoken.

junior boyswear all grace the boutique. There is a stunning Home Collection, jewellery, and an available custom order option for hand-made Italian furniture. One recent client left the store as the ecstatic new owner of a classic leather jacket with removable fur collar, a unique piece that could be changed from classic leather to biker style in a few seconds. The world of Stefano Ricci holds multitudes of special items, all made to exacting standards by the finest artisans in Italy, and all designed by Mr. Ricci himself. Even a cursory visit to this store will transport vou into a wonderful new world.

GLOBAL ATOMIC DESIGNS

Global Atomic Designs may be Yaletown's longest-running boutique, operating since 1998. More recently, it has transformed into a bit of an underground emporium, a tucked-away secret; walk by too quickly down Mainland Street and you might miss it. For the Lower Mainland's more style-conscious residents, the down-the-brick-hallway general store has long been a trusted source for the right assortment of stylish apparel, footwear and accessories.

Carrying progressive, hard-to-find contemporary brands like Odeur, The Last Conspiracy, Religion UK; well-recognized international labels like G-Star Raw, John Varvatos, Scotch & Soda, Diesel; plus street wear mainstays Zanerobe, Publish; all ensure there's something for everybody. Not to neglect local talents, Global Atomic also carries up-and-coming Vancouver stylemakers such as Purple Denim, Noctex and Le Fonce Cloth. If fashion's not your cup of tea, try an espresso made using exclusive butter-roasted coffee beans at the instore Black Echo Coffee Bar.

Global Atomic Designs是耶鲁镇内历史悠久的精品服饰店。入口隐秘的地下服饰店是当地时尚人士的爱店。咖啡爱好者可在这里品尝独家的牛油烘培咖啡。

CICINO

The concept of fashion maven and venture capitalist Min Kuang, CICINO has brought to Vancouver the European approach to luxury living—both wearable and refined, with just a hint of avant garde. Find names like Kenzo, Pascal Millet, Blugirl, and Sergio Rossi, alongside gowns from Mikael D and Reem Acra, handmade men's shoes from John Lobb, and jewellery and accessories from names like Oscar de la Renta and Shourouk. Everything you see is available to own—the couture, the artwork, the custom Italian furniture, even the wallpaper—but CICINO is more than a retail boutique. The bright heritage space, featuring warm wood details and two mezzanine levels, forms a sophisticated backdrop for the high teas, trunk shows, receptions, and special cultural performances held regularly for VIP clients. It's about bringing good things to your life in full spectrum: distinction, style, connection, and experience.

The Advent of LUXURY

Verdant, lush and growing. No, not Vancouver's natural beauty, though that is a luxury in itself. We are talking about the luxury retail world, and Vancouver has indeed stepped onto the world stage.

From rare Himalayan black tea to high complications watches, from hand-woven neckties to Black Sea pearls, it is all here. And much more.

With five-diamond hotels such as Rosewood Hotel Georgia, Shangri-La, and The Wedgewood making a visit relaxing and refreshing, the luxury shops, often just steps away from your hotel lobby doors, require serious investigation, and offer ample rewards. Stefano Ricci has opened only its fourth North America location, right on Georgia Street. Directly across is the lovely TWG tea room, with over 500 teas on offer, so you can relax and contemplate that Ricci belt you just found.

Chopard, IWC Schaffhausen. Hublot, Jaeger-Lecoultre, have all opened corporate boutiques recently. De Beers, too. In the fashion world, not only has Nordstroms arrived, but boutiques for Brunello Cucinelli, Prada, Versace, Dior, Coach, Gucci, and a Louis Vuitton Maison are all ready to greet you. Carefully and expertly curated boutiques such as Couturist, The Cross, and Secret Location, provide unique, small-production high-end brands for your consideration. You really can have it all.

Real estate development has never been stronger in Vancouver, and with that, interior design and home styling are on the rise as well. There is Versace Home, Roche Bobois, the amazing Inform Interiors and the ultra-luxe Living Space, where brands such as Minotti are on full display.

The browsing, the buying, the peripatetic exertion, will bring you to the dining scene. West Coast themes mean seafood, certainly, but Vancouver runs the gamut, with high-quality cuisines from every part of the world taking on their own identities right here. Sushi by the legendary Tojo, inventor of the California roll; Peking duck and dim sum to die for at Mott 32; grilled branzino at Cin Cin; freshcaught octopus at Botanist or at Blue Water Café; exhilarating takes on fresh and local at L'Abbatoir or Coquille; French Canadian bliss at St. Lawrence; deeply authentic Italian at La Terrazza, Cioppino or Giardino. The main challenge is how to fit all the great restaurants into your time. The real answer is to stay longer.

Luxury retail options are abounding and expanding in Vancouver. We welcome you to use our Guide, to make efficient use of your valuable time, and to encourage you to explore a little. You are likely to return for more.

SALON DE NUVIDA WITH AVEDA

Salon de Nuvida, open in Yaletown since 2014, is a natural fit for a Pacific Rim city of many global influences. Nuvida is the Korean concept of "around the world". The diverse backgrounds of the owners and the team are beautifully reflected by this. The team is internationally experienced, bringing knowledge and expertise from Japan, Korea, Taiwan, Australia, and across Canada.

The staff maintains a focus on constant education in international trends, cuts, and colour methods, and on building these looks on a foundation of healthy hair. Aveda plantbased botanical therapies are paired with carefully selected Ayurvedic repair treatments, aromatherapies, and popular digital perms and straightening technologies that produce glossy, smooth hair requiring minimal maintenance. It's a hip, relaxed environment, complete with cups of organic tea, a calming private shampoo room, and unhurried head massages—all designed to make you love being there, and leave feeling great.

Salon de Nuvida发廊于2014年设于温哥华市区的耶鲁镇。Nuvida的韩文意思是世界各地,而这个概念反射在来自日本、韩国、台湾、澳洲与加拿大的发廊团队。

MIRAJ HAMMAM SPA

The practice of hammam was once called "the silent doctor"—an essential ritual that cleansed the skin and revived the soul. Eighteen years ago, Miraj Hammam Spa brought this eastern art to Vancouver by merging the hammam experience with the best elements of a luxury spa. The result has been so successful that in 2012 they expanded east, after being asked to become the official spa operators at Miraj Hammam Spa at the Shangri-La Hotel Toronto.

Within the marble walls of Miraj, under the cover of medicinal steam, pores open, limbs relax, and the mind awakens. A full-body scrub using traditional Moroccan black soap comes next, followed by an expert massage to leave you glowing and energized. Make sure to take time afterward to relax in the sultan's lounge—the complimentary tea and delicious sweet cakes simply complete the voyage.

Miraj Hammam結合了土耳其蒸汽浴與水療美容,讓您享受清潔皮膚與復活靈魂的中東洗浴習俗。傳統摩洛哥黑肥皂與專業按摩讓您恢復精神。

KOZAI MODERN

The Kozai Modern gallery brings together a tightly edited and exclusive collection of the best of local West Coast studio furniture and artisanal lighting, complemented by carefully selected and meticulously crafted chair and lighting lines from Japan.

Kozai is used by Japanese craftsmen to designate hardwoods and the gallery celebrates the unique character and personality of each and every piece of solid hardwood. Their collection reflects clean mid-century modern design, the intense Japanese focus on detail, and a less-is-more aesthetic. Their clean designs provide great functionality and superb ergonomic comfort.

Gallery partners Ron Cromie and Hideki Shimizu work closely with their clients to ensure the right furniture and lighting fit for their unique homes and lifestyles.

Kozai Modern艺廊的「kozai」在日文的意思是「硬木」、而目的是赞扬每一块木头的独特性。店内聚集了顶级西岸设计师家具与从日本精心挑选的桌椅灯光设计品。

SHOWCASE PIANOS

Showcase Pianos is a keyboard wonderland. The collection, which includes some special preowned offerings, is comprised of eight exclusive manufacturers, including C. Bechstein, W. Hoffmann, and Wilh Steinberg. The world-renowned, innovative Fazioli pianos are a central part of the Showcase collection as well. Paolo Fazioli designs and creates amazing instruments, completely by hand, in his factory just outside Venice. These pianos took the concert performance world by storm, and Showcase is the exclusive dealer for this region.

The Broadway flagship store features a concert space, a recording studio, and an Academy, with lessons for all ages of performers, plus an early education class for budding stars. Proprietor Manuel Bernaschek has created a thoughtful, nurturing environment for music experience and education, along with absolutely world-class performers coming in to share their knowledge and skills. Whether you are just starting out on a 5'2" Fazioli F 156, or bringing the house down and the curtain repeatedly up, with a 10'3" Faziloi F 308, Showcase is the place to be.

走入Showcase Piano仿佛走入钢琴仙境。独家制琴工艺商如贝希斯坦、霍夫曼、威廉史丹堡与法奇歐里都聚集在此。

BOCONCEPT

In 1952, two Danish cabinetmakers, inspired by a wave of design innovation, launched a unique furniture company driven by modern functionality. Sixty years later, the BoConcept model of beautiful, usable Danish design has spread across the globe—including Vancouver's own store just outside the Armoury District.

The genius to BoConcept is customization: take each elegant piece as it is, or work with a consultant to make it your own with hundreds of choices for fabric and detail. You'll even be shown how the lighting in your home affects its appearance, so you can be confident in your choices. Every item in the store—from furniture and lamps to rugs and accessories—is exclusive to BoConcept and designed to work together, so you could outfit an entire contemporary home, and still be utterly unique.

BoConcept是本地的北歐簡約時尚家具店,你可以依自己的喜好訂製每一款家具來展現自己的獨特風格與品味。
